Acknowledging receipt of his favor of the 27th. inst. Informing that the Minister does not deem it advisable to lease any stream or so far surrender the control as to privilege any party to divert or sub-lease the same, but if he desires the use of the stream for the purposes of introduction of salmon & trout, the Minister will gladly give him a written permit for its use free of all rental, & will be happy to assist him in the matter in every possible way.
