CLASS INT. DEPT. BK. 13. p. 58 YEAR 1875 MONTH Aug. 12

In letter from Min. of Interior to Wm. Lidgate, acknowledging receipt of his letter of the 21st. of July & also Kamai's lease to the above persons. That Kamai has exceeded his authority as Land Agent in executing the lease, as no Agent is authorized to lease lands for a greater term than one year & the rental given in the lease is too low, can not therefore sanction it. All written Leases are made in the Interior Office. That if he desires it a lease will be granted him for the term of 10 or 15 years at $100.- per annum.
