F. O. & Ex.

1847.

Aug. 8.

Trusts that Mr. Wyllie's natural kindness of disposition will not for a moment induce him to accept less than the most ample apology from Consul General Miller in connection with his charges relating to Mr. Wyllie's accounts as Pro Consul. He may not again have a like opportunity of bringing him to the "ring bolt". Now that Ladd & Co. are hors de combat, hopes that the news from England will place all the enemies of the Government in like predicament.

ALLAN, Geo. T. to Min. of For. Affrs. Wyllie.

F.O. & Ex.

1847.

Aug. 9.

Giving advice in the matter of Consul General Miller's charges re. Mr. Wyllie's Pro-Consular Accounts. States: "I cannot say I am much surprised at the course pursued by old humbug, it smacks strongly of the man and were I in your place I should send all the accounts home and expose his consummate ignorance in the proper quarter. I think it the duty of every well wisher to the tranquility of those Islands to do his best to rid them of such an Incubus".
