

AIR FORCE, U. S., RECRUITING

STAR BULLETIN

1948

March 31

p.13, c.3

Enlistments take decided upswing since President Truman's call for draft and universal military training legislation.

AIR FORCE, U. S., RECRUITING

STAR BULLETIN

1948

June 5

p.4, c.5

Courtland D. Sawtelle sworn in to the Pacific Air Command yesterday as a major, and immediately reported for active duty.

AIR FORCE, U. S., RECRUITING

ADVERTISER                      1948              August 6                      p.3, c.3

Air Force recruiting campaign to enlist three-year volunteers will continue without let-up in spite of draft legislation and new short term enlistment offers.

STAR BULLETIN                      1948              August 6                      p.3, c.5

STAR BULLETIN                      1948              August 7                      p.1, c.1

Pacific Air Command will accept 80 youths between 18 and 19, for one year enlistments in the air force during the current fiscal year.

AIR FORCE, U. S., RECRUITING

STAR BULLETIN

1948

August 30

p.11, c.5

Air force recruiting office to conduct a second registration of 18-year-old applicants for one year enlistments.

ADVERTISER

1948

September 16

p.5, c.3

Army and Air Force Recruiting Station moves to new offices on Ala Moana at Richards Street, next to the commissary.

AIR FORCE, U. S., RECRUITING

ADVERTISER                      1948              December 2              Ed.p., c.1

EDITORIAL: A challenging task.

ADVERTISER                      1948              December 17              p.6, c.2

Only persons with previous military service to be accepted for enlistment in the air force, according to information received this week by the Pacific Air Command.

STAR BULLETIN                      1948              December 17              p.9, c.1