

ADJUTANT GENERAL

ADVERTISER                      1946      April 17    p.4, c.1

The territory can expect to have a new adjutant general within a month, according to authoritative sources.

STAR-BULLETIN                    1946      April 17    p.7, c.6

ADVERTISER                      1946      April 21    p.6, c.8

Colonel Fred W. Makinney, USA, retired, is under consideration for appointment as adjutant general for Hawaii.

ADJUTANT GENERAL

ADVERTISER

1947

Feb.20

p.13, c.5

Lt. Colonel Joseph I. DeVille leaves for Washington to attend the annual conference of adjutant generals, as the representative of Brig. General F.W. Makinney, AG of Hawaii.

STAR BULLETIN

1947

Feb.20

p.6, c.6