

AIRLINES, PACIFIC OVERSEAS

ADVERTISER                      1946      May 7      p.1, c.3

First trans-Pacific flight of Pacific Overseas Airline plane en route here from San Francisco. Airline owned and managed by 240 former servicemen.

May 24                      p.1, c.5,6

Mercy flights to China mark auspicious opening for commercial phase of Pacific Overseas Airlines.

STAR BULLETIN                      1946      May 24      p.2, c.3

AIRLINES. PACIFIC OVERSEAS

STAR BULLETIN

1950

January 13

p.6, c.6

To present its case for low fare tourist service and all inclusive air tours, next week before the Civil Aeronautics Board at Washington, D. C.

STAR BULLETIN

1950

January 19

p.14, c.6

Its representatives tell CAB they are relying heavily on Trans-Pacific Airlines for finances and equipment to start its proposed Los Angeles-Honolulu coach service. By William H. Ewing.